One precious to our hearts has gone,
The voice we loved is stilled,
The place made vacant in our home
Can never more be filled.
Our Father in his wisdom, called
The boon his love had given;
And though on earth the body lies,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

GEORGE UHLER,
241-22c Secretary

SENATOR FLAYS REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Washington, Oct. 15.—An attack on the taxation policy of the Republicans and on Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, was made by Senator Gless, Virginia, yesterday in a stirring statement given out at the White House.

Referring to a recent statement by Penrose that taxes would be reduced by a Republican adminstration Glass, who was formerly Secretary of the Treasury, said:

"The people should clearly and constantly understand that not even Senator Penrose, much less the impotent Republican Congress, can lighten the burden of taxation at this Congress or the next or for many succeeding congresses, if the various schemes for monstrous expenditures, such as indisciminate bonuses and other projects proposed by Republican house, are put into effect by any administration."

Glass said Penrose in his talk about tax revision "brushes aside with a gesture of undisguised contempt the Federal Constitution." Though the Constitution provides that all money bills must originate in the house, Glass said that "it is the fixed judgment of many keenly observant persons that not only will all revenue bills originate with Mr. Penrose, but likewise all things else, legislative and executive, which shall affect the interests of the people of this country."

Glass declared the Republican party had absolutely failed to keep its promise made two years ago to reduce taxes.

The Virginia senator predicted that if the Republicans are elected there will be no tax revision either at the short session or the special session to follow. The special session, he said, will be required "for the purpose of scrapping the league of nations, thus dishonoring this nation and trying to induce the forty-one nations now forming the league to join Mr. Harding and the junkers and the Sultan of Turkey with Lenine and Trotsky in their associations of nations to encourage peace."

"I think there will be enough self-respecting men left in the Senate to make it take that much time to break up the league and induce the nations constituting it to associate with the United States, Germany, Turkey and Russia in the proposed new scheme of a separate peace and a 'call it what you will' league," Glass said.

Senator Glass said he favors repealing the excess profits tax. He also urged revision of the income tax schedule chiefly as to larger incomes.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son, Albert Speiss, who left us suddenly two years ago today, October 15, 1918.

The depth of our sorrow we cannot tell,
At the loss of the one we loved so well.

And while you lie in peaceful sleep,
Your memory we will always keep.

Although the circle is broken,
And parting has filled us with pain,
We hold a glorious token,
The bright hope of meeting again.

By mother and father.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT SAYS CORONER'S JURY

Also Says Killing of Alfred Doss Was Unjustifiable

FIVE WITNESSES

Testimony Was That Shamrock Fired After Another Detective Had Altercation With Two Employees at Car

That Alfred Doss, colored, a laborer who was employed at the Potomac yards, came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by Special agent, P. A. Shamrock at Potomac yards, Oct 13 and died at 9 o'clock that night at the Alexandria Hospital and that the shooting and killing was accidental was the verdict of a coroner's jury which met last night at Wheatley's mortuary chapel. The jury added to the verdict "but the shooting was unjustifiable."

The jury was composed of the following: R. Theodore Cook, foreman; W. J. Mc Caffrey, William Baader, Herbert C. Knight, Walter T. Cline, Hunt Russell. Coroner T. M. Jones presided.

The jury heard the testimony of five witnesses before reaching its verdict.

Representing the railroad company at the inquest was Attorney Gardner L. Boothe and Attorney Edmund Burke for the family of Doss, Commonwealth's attorney, Frank Ball of Arlington county, appeared for the state. Shamrock was not present.

Attorney Ball stated that the shooting probably would be investigated by the grand jury which meets Monday in Arlington county.

Fleming Burke, a seal clerk employed at the yards who lives at Potomac, told the jury that previous to the shooting there was a scuffle at the pay car between another special agent and two white men, because they got on the wrong side of the pay car and that Shamrock walked up and pulled out his gun and two men took hold of it and as he stepped back it was discharged. At the time the gun was discharged, Shamrock was bent over he said.

According to the testimony of James Hasson, of Alexandria, a brakeman, following an altercation between two men and another special agent at the pay car, Shamrock came up and pulled his gun and fired, and witness said he grabbed Shamrock immediately after the shooting. No one had hold of Shamrock when he fired, said the witness and he added nothing was done to provoke the shooting.

Arthur Arnold, Anacostia, D. C., a car inspector at the yards, told the jury that following a remark made by him a detective struck him over the side of the face with the barrel of a pistol. Witness said the shooting occurred immediately after he was struck, although he did not witness it.

Following an altercation between an employee and another detective, the shooting occured, said Norman W. Gill, a yard conductor. Shamrock pulled out his gun and it went off, and two men grabbed it. Sham-

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Emma Rebecca Ridgeway, who departed this life two years ago today, October 15, 1918.

The month of October once more is here,
To us the saddest of the year,
Because two years ago today,
Our beloved daughter passed away.
Days of sadness still come over us,
Secret tears do often flow;
But memory keeps you near us,
Though you died two years ago.
We have missed her, how we've missher,
God of Heaven only knows,
But, we are on our way to meet her,
When our journey here shall close.
By her devoted mother and father.

The midnight stars are beaming,
Upon her silent grave,
Who sleepth without dreaming;
The one we could not save.
May the Heavenly winds blow softly,
O'er that sweet and hallowed spot.
Mid the changing seasons, of life dear one, you will never be forgotten.
By her devoted sister Etta

Shaw Brands Lloyd George as "Wrecker"

Edinburgh, Oct. 15.—George Bernard Shaw characteristically attacks Premier Lloyd George on the latter's candidacy fo rthe rectorship of Eidenburgh University against Prof Gilbert Murray. "The contest is indecent intellectually and academically," says Shaw. "Lloyd George is the incarnation of the Parliamentary electioneering, suburb fatening, recklessly short sighted opportunist which is visibly wrecking European civilization.

"His election against Prof. Murray would be really an intellectual equivalent to 'Not this man, but Barabbas.'

"If the election were a Parliamentary one. I should wish Lloyd George success, for Murray is much too good for that wretched assembly which, when our soldiers won the war, lost peace and now under the Premier's leadership is handling Ireland as the Turkish empire used to handle the Balkans."

IN MEMORIAM.

BEACH—In sad, but loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, Eligie C. Beach, who entered into rest two years ago, today, October 15, 1918.

I cannot forget you, dear son
While in this world I stay;—
God only knows my feeling
Since you have passed away.

Gone in the best of his days,
Blighted in manhood's bloom;
Taken from the hearts that loved him,
To sleep in the silent tomb.

The month of October one more is here,
To me the saddest of the year.
Because two years ago today
We laid our Dear Eligie away.

The flowers I placed upon his grave
May wither and decay,
But the love for him who sleeps beneath
Will never fade away.

As time goes on, I miss you more,
Your memory is as fresh today
As it was the day you passed away.

There is a sad, sad longing,
Deep down in our hearts today,
To see again our loved one,
Whom death took from us away.

I often sit and wonder
What you would think of say,
If you only knew the changes
That have happened since the day you passed away.

And I bear my cross in silence,
Awaiting my call away.
And pray that God will grant my prayer.
That we shall meet some day.

Sleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
Gone but not forgotten:
Loved in life, remembered in death.

His loving mother, G. V. Harrison.

How happy were the by-gone days,
When our circle was complete;
But now it is broken, one is gone
To live at Jesus feet.

'Twas said to say good-by to him,
When he was called away;
But God knew best, to Him we bow,
We'll meet again some day.

Home at rest, so sweetly sleeping,
In the Savior's tender care,
Where there is no pain or sorrow,
None on earth can harm you there.

'Tis sweet to breathe they name;
In life we loved thee dearly,
In death we do the same.

His devoted brother, James E. Beach.

Dear is the grave where by brother is laid,
Sweet is the memory which never shall fade;
Flowers may wither, leaves fade and die,
Others may foget you, never will I.
Sleep on, dear loved one, and take your rest,
God called you home, He thought it was best;
He saw your suffering was great
And opened wide the golden gate.
Gone from me forever, the one I loved so well.
Oh, how I do miss him, no one can ever tell.

His loving brother, John S. Beach

GOV. COX ARRAIGNS HARDING SUPPORTERS

Says They Constitute Motley Array of Questionable Groups

14 "PARTIES" ON LIST

Declares That to Survey Them "Brings Crimson Blush of Humiliation to an American" Speaks at Ohio Capital.

Columbus, Oct 14.—Severe arraignment of forces which he said were supporting Senator Harding, his Republican opponent, was made by Governor Cox here last night in an address at the State fair grounds coliseum, closing a strenuous day of campaigning in his home State.

The Governor's address last night was to a crowd which filled the largest forum in the State capital. It was the eleventh speech of an exhausting day in Ohio for the Governor on his first full day of home State campaigning.

Officans at Van Wert, Delphos, Lima, Wapakoneta, Sydney, Urbana and Milford Center turned out in force with bands, including the celebrated "Cox Band," of Piqua, which performed at the San Francisco convention.

"The candidate of the Senatorial ring has behind him today the most motley array of questionable groups and influences that ever were behind a candidate—an array that to survey brings the crimson blush of humiliation to an American," the Democratic Presidential candidate declared.

The following "parties" were named as backing Senator Harding:

"The reactionary party."

"The pro-German party, whose members opposed our successful prosecution of the war."

"The Italian party, whose members place a futile Italian imperialism over the interests of this nation."

"The low-wage party, an organization with a definite understanding that wages must come down."

"The suppression party, whose members say or believe that every bit of progressive thought is to be choked."

"The Greek party and the Bulgarian party, with a common purpose to punish those who considered the welfare of the world superior to the claims of nationalistic ambition."

"The bayonet party, which believes martial law is a solvent for all industrial disputes."

"The national isolation party, whose object is to secure autocratic position in the world and whose creed is selfishness."

"The liberty-bond speculators' party now arranging a sudden coup to the prejudice of the taxpayers.

"The anti-Federal Reserve Act party."

"The profiteer party, which seeks to escape payment of tax on incomes swollen by war profits."

"The anti-League of Nations party, possessing a perfect understanding with Senator Harding that he is to scuttle every plan looking to international peace."

"The munitions-making party, an organization with a vast propaganda fund ready and eager to embroil the world in fresh wars."

"The Afro-American party, whose hyphenated activity has attempted to stir up troubles among the negroes upon false claims that it can bring social equality."

"I have enumerated some but not all of the complex parties which for a most extraordinary campaign are to be made to march together," the candidate continued.

PRESIDENT WILSON SAYS:

"* * * Those who do not care to tell the truth about the League of Nations tell you that Article X of the Covenant of the League would make is possible for other nations to lead us into war, whether we will it by our own independent judgment or not. This is absolutely false. There is nothing in the Covenant which in the least interferes with or impairs the right of Congress to declare war or not declare war, according to its own independent judgment, as our Constitution provides.

"Those who drew the Covenant of the League were careful that it should contain nothing which interfered with or impaired the constitutional arrangements of any of the great nations which are to constitute its members. They would have been amazed and indignant at the things that are now being ignorantly said about this great and sincere document.

HOW WASHINGTON VOTED.

(Communicated.)

For those who feel no special liking for the personality of either of the presidential candidates, the following anecdote taken from an old letter may offer a suggestion. "In the spring of 1799, I was standing near when the general (Washington) drove up an alighted at Gadsby Tavern, and immediately walked over to the Court House, the entrance to which was up a flight of stairs, and where within a few feet of it, I saw several sturdy men spring forward and place themselves in a position to suport the steps should they give way when the general ascended them. He proceeded to the Court Room, where several of the candidates (for Congress) were gathered, and who rose in a body and bowed smilingly, to which General Washington graciously responded. Col. Deneale (clerk of court) who was standing near said, "General, how do you vote The general looked towards the candidates and said "Gentlemen, I vote for measures, not men" and turning audibly gave his vote." This occurred less than a year before General Washington's death and was his last vote given as conscientiously as it is hoped will be all votes cast in Alexandria on November 2.

Unhurt in Auto Mishap

Greencastle, Ind., Oct. 14.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, was shaken up but uninjured yesterday morning when an automobile carrying him from Crawfordsville to Greencastle, threw a tire just north of Ladoga.

INGOMAR—"Hairpins."

Enid Bennett has another of those wistful young wife roles which she made popular in "Stepping Out" in her latest Thomas H. Ince picture, "Hairpins," at the Ingomar Theatre tonight. Matt Moore is the leading man and Fred Niblo directed the picture, which is a Paramount Artcraft. It is the appealing story of a household drudge who took a lesson from her husband's stenographer and blossomed out as a drawing room favorite. C. Gardner Sullivan wrote

---to help you buy and wear good clothes

In ordinary times, the prices of our suits are determined by their cost and the cost of serving you, plus a reasonable profit.

We were obliged to pay high prices for the good Fall clothing we sell. We would not buy any other kind of clothes. To enable our customers to buy and wear good clothes this Fall, we have cut down our profits on the well-known

Kuppenheimer good Clothes

You don't have to accept inferior clothes at the price you want to pay. Our co-operation this season brings the price of good clothes down within the reach of your pocketbook.

The Fall styles are practical and sensible; models that don't go out of style in four or six months. The suits will last longer and the style will be right as long as the suit lasts.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT SAYS CORONERS' JURY.

rock was in a stooped position he said. The witness then added that Shamrock whispered something to Sharp previous to the shooting and fired after walking back a short distance.

C. E. Cannaday, special agent, of Washington, testified that he was on the inside of the pay car at the time of the shooting. There were about 200 men around at the time witness said.

It was testified that Doss was not in any manner connected with the mix-up previous to the shooting.

Special agent F. A. Cannady, following the inquest, stated that Shamrock is not a special agent, but was employed at the yards as a watchman.

QUALITY COUNTS

Now—as perhaps never before—quality counts in the keeping of garments in good condition.

Not quality of materials or fabrics—these do not enter into the scheme of looking well.

It Is Quality Of Pressing, Cleaning and Repairing That Counts.

We can take a suit, overcoat, dress or other garment and make it look like new—even a garment that looks as if it were practically worn out. We have one of the largest cleaning and dyeing trades in the city and we keep it by giving our customers satisfaction in every respect and a square deal always.

DODSON WARNS CALOMEL USERS

It's Mercury! Attacks the Bones, Salivates and Makes You Sick

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to our dear friends, any many thanks for the loaned machines, and also beautiful floral offerings for our daughter, Ethel.

The Country Demands A Change

The country demands a change in the White House.

The people are tired of the misrule and inefficiency which have brought about chaos and unrest.

Harding is the man.

Harding is for peace at home and abroad, therefore he fought that part of the treaty that would involve us in European wars.

He voted for the recall of our soldiers from Russia.

He fought for the safety of our sons and our homes.

He has worked for the welfare of our children and supported the child labor law.

He has been the constant and dependable friend of the working man.

Harding has fought profiteering and worked to lower the cost of living.

He voted for the law against cornering foodstuffs.

He voted for woman suffrage and lent his influence and his efforts to bring about state ratifications.

Harding and Coolidge are both men of the people. Their sympathies and their public acts prove it.

Both were born on farms and worked for an education. Both have won to the top by clear-cut force, ability and honesty.

When Harding goes to the White House he will call into his councils and his cabinet the ablest among the many able men of the Republican party, the party founded by Lincoln, which, since the Civil War, has ever wisely guided the destinies of the country in days of stress, when human problems pressed for solution.

Both are intensely human, simple, unpretentious men whose leadership has been won by sheer merit. They have not forgotten the days when they toiled by the sweat of their brawn for a living Both are devoted home men, the kind of men to protect the safety and integrity of the home. Both are strong men, honest and deeply patriotic.

We need a change in the White House. We need strong men there. We need the strong men of the Republican party to bring order out of chaos. Vote for Harding and Coolidge as a safeguard of your homes, your rights and your country.

YEAR OLD STOMACH COUGH

STOPPED BY

CHASCO-VIN

"For one whole year I was troubled with a bad stomach cough that just racked me termbly. In fact it got on my nerve.

I doctored right along but nothing reached the spot until I took Chasco-Vin. A half a bottle stopped it and now when it occasionally comes back I take two or three doses and it fixes me right up again. It sure is a great medicine."

John D. Middleton,
425 Clinton Street,
Camden, N. J.

Chasco-Vin not only relieves chronic coughs and colds of all kinds but in its strength-creating properties it acts as an appetizer and body-builder too. Equally good for young and old.

Because of the wonderful results reported by users of Chasco-Vin, the local agency, Warfield's Pharmacy add its personal recommendation too. Call at Warfield's Pharmacy and ask about it.

FIND WILD GIRL IN WOODLANDS

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 14.—Scantily clad and with her feet and ankles exposed and bleeding from being lacerated by walking over rough stones and through briars, Miss Katherine Easterday, 18 years old, a girl of unusual beauty, was found yesterday in the foothills of the South Mountain, near Beaver Creek, by Deputy Sheriff Fred Rohrer, of this city, He brought her to Bellevue, the county home, for investigation of her mental condition.

The girl, who wore only a thin waist and a petticoat, which were badly torn, told an incoherent story of her wanderings. Efforts to locate her home or relatives have failed. The girl was discovered walking on a lonely road at the foot of the mountain by an autoist, who reported the case to Sheriff Duffy. The girl attempted to flee when Deputy Rohrer overtook her in a thickly wooded section.

After being brought here the girl mumbled about someone trying to bury her near Smoketown, and after questioning the officers learned her name.
